5. Update on Quad Area, Building D, and E
Joseph Reyes
Mr. Reyes informed the council regarding the updates to the Quad area as well as Building D and E. They are doing demolition work on Building D. Summer 2020 will be open for faculty to move back. Building E will begin 14 months after D due to the Nursing building construction. They plan to ground break mid to late November in lot 3. Once the nursing building is done then nursing will move from building B to the new building and then new construction to the second floor of the B building. Two classrooms in the B building have been changed to be ESL and Mi CASA. The Building D construction will include an addition of two classrooms to offset the loss of the two in building B. D, Quad, King City, Soledad, Nursing will all be in construction at the same time by mid-November. The elevator in building D will be included
